G"Sweets

Shop where you can eat sweets made in Gero and sold only in Gero

Finely marbled Hida beef has a high degree of marbled fat. Its texture is tender, and its taste is rich and mellow.

The pork grown in the rich nature of Hida has a mild flavor and pleasant aftertaste.

Gin-no-Mikazuki is a large grain rice and received the first-place award in two consecutive years. This cultivar was discovered in Gero City, and it excels in stickiness, scent, and springiness.

River Fish [ayu sweetfish, Amago trout, etc.]

River Fish [ayu sweetish, Amago trout, etc.]
River fish grown in clear streams in the city. You can enjoy them as sushi or roasted or candied ones. Mushrooms [hen-of-the-woods, etc.]

They are the ingredients representing Gero. They have good texture and aroma, frequently used in cuisine. Local Cuisine [Keichan (chicken dish), Hoba sushi, etc.]

Cuisine loved by local people for generations. Each shop offers a different taste. Local produce is used [vegetables, dairy products, konjac jelly, etc.] Please taste those produced, grown, or processed in Gero having much temperature difference Cashless payment available [credit card, QR code, etc.] *Some cashless payment services may not be available depending on the shops.
